TTP's Unsuccessful Leadership Forced to Rely on Fake Claims

After failure on every front, TTP's leadership is only focused on fake claims. TTP has claimed responsibility for Spinwam sniper attack in North Waziristan, which is far from reality. Reality behind TTP's fake claims are as under:

- TTP's aim behind fake claims is to gather funds from its foreign masters.
- TTP's leadership, hiding in Afghanistan, is trying to boost morale of its frustrated terrorists.
- TTP's terrorists are incapable of taking any action and are giving fake news about their attacks to their leadership in order to save their skin.
- Small sub-groups of TTP are fooling their leadership in Afghanistan to extract dollars, because in reality these dollars 💵 are so called Jihad.

Pakistani people are suggesting TTP's Khawarij to at least consult locals before making fake claims.
