South Waziristan: Infiltration Attempt on Pak-Afghan Border Foiled Heavy Casualties of TTP Terrorists

TTP terrorists infiltration attempt on border adjacent to South Waziristan foiled by security personnel deployed in the area. Large number of terrorists got killed and injured.

As per intelligence, TTP terrorists were preparing to cross border for the last few days. Last night, security forces deputed on Pak-Afghan border, timely identified movement of terrorists and targeted them when they were trying to cut the fence. Numerous terrorists got killed and injured in exchange of fire, while remaining terrorists were forced to flee back to Afghanistan.

Security forces are diligently guarding borders and thwarting nefarious intentions of terrorists. In current year, several terrorist infiltration attempts have been foiled, in which TTP has suffered heavy casualties.
