South Waziristan Security Forces Tightening Grip Against Terrorists

Security forces intelligence based operation on presence of terrorists in Madi Jan, suburbs of Sarwakai, South Waziristan. TTP terrorists were forced to flee leaving behind weapons and equipment, search operation ongoing against four terrorists, who were seriously injured in exchange of fire and are trying unsuccessfully to hide in the area.

Terrorists were using this area to access other surrounding areas. Due to timely response of security agencies, it has become impossible for terrorists to pass through these areas and setup hideouts, as there are no more hiding places in the area.

So-called claimants of Sharia and Jihad are meeting their end at hands of security agencies on daily basis.
