Internal Rifts in Tehreek-e-Taliban Waziristan

According to local tribes of Waziristan, Tehreek-e-Taliban Waziristan has split into different factions. Internal rifts and disagreements are ever increasing.

Local Taliban commander Hameedullah alias Gohars' associates are unwilling to follow his orders as Gohar is spending donations on his personal luxuries after collecting them from locals.

Aleem Khan Khushali is also not helping his colleagues from Afghanistan. This is evident by the fact that terrorist Noor Silaslam aka Nangyale kidnapped some people from an oil and gas company to meet his expenses, but he got killed in the process.

Helpless terrorists of Tehreek-e-Taliban are seen appealing and begging locals for help in this cold season.

After Maulana Taqi Usmani's fatwa, locals have started questioning ideology of Tehreek-e-Taliban and some Taliban have decided to defect.

Miscreants' time in Waziristan is over and they will be completely eradicated very soon.
