TTP Forced to Distance Themselves from Peshawar Suicide Attack

Responsibility for Peshawar suicide attack was claimed by TTP Zhob Emir Sarbakaf Mohmand, calling it to be revenge attack for death of Umar Khalid Khorasani. Later, following public backlash and Afghan Taliban condemnation statement, TTP Central Council distanced themselves from the blast.

TTP's internal rifts have exponentially aggravated amid Peshawar attack. Noor Wali Mehsud has dismissed Sarbakaf Mohman from his position and also suspended him from Central Council in a bid to cover TTP's anti-Islamic activities.

TTP's hypocrisy and their anti-Islamic crime will never be forgotten by populace, who are well aware of the reality. terrorists and their facilitators will be avenged for the incident.
