South Waziristan: Successful Operation by Security Forces, One Wanted Khawarij Sent to Hell

Security forces killed a wanted terrorist in intelligence based operation in Nasran, a suburb of Jandola (South Waziristan).

According to details, on the basis of intelligence about terrorists presence in the area, security forces surrounded their hideout and blocked escape routes. After fierce exchange of fire, one wanted terrorist Ghufran was sent to hell.

Terrorist commander Ghufran belonged to Maulvi Baseer group, a notorious target killer and specialized in making IEDs. Killing of terrorist Ghufran is undoubtedly a great success of security forces.

Security personnels deployed in South Waziristan are engaged in eradicating Khawarij with full professionalism. Insha Allah, their killings will continue until complete elimination of Khawarij.
