North Waziristan; Highly Successful Operation by Security Forces, 5 Khawarij Sent to Hell, Children and Women taken Hostage Rescued

Mir Ali: Security forces surrounded a house in Khaisur village on basis of intelligence about presence of terrorists. Terrorists took two women and eight children hostage to use them as human shields.

In view of threats of Khawarij, maliks and masharan of the area refrained from any attempt to recover hostage women and children.

Security forces using all their resources after several hours of operation skillfully killed 5 most wanted terrorists including Ibrahim alias Musa and safely recovered all hostages women and children. Locals thanked security forces for successful completion of operation.

Slain terrorist Ibrahim alias Musa Aleem Khan was local commander of Khushali group, who was involved in extortion, target killing, movement of terrorists from Afghanistan to Pakistan and various terrorist activities for which a reward of Rs 15 lakh was fixed.

This operation by security forces is a reflection of coordinated planning, professionalism and firm determination against terrorism. In the same way, these Khawarij will continue to be brought to their terrible end and they will not be given a chance to hide or run away, Insha Allah.
