North Waziristan; Infiltration Attempt at Pak-Afghan Border Foiled, Two Khawarij Sent to Hell

As a result of timely identification of infiltration attempt by TTP terrorists in Ghulam Khan, border area of North Waziristan followed by prompt response of security forces, two Khawarij were killed while four terrorists escaped back to Afghanistan with injuries. Weapons, ladders and explosives were recovered.

According to details, security forces timely identified 5-6 terrorists advancing towards border fence and targeted them when they were trying to cut fence - two Khawarij were killed in the exchange of fire while rest escaped with injuries.

Dedicated security personnel deployed on the Pak-Afghan border are ensuring security of country's borders with utmost responsibility and professionalism. Process of crushing Khawarij moving towards this pure land along with their impure ambitions will continue, InshaAllah.
