Lakki Marwat; Success of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Police Against Khawarij, Three Khawarij including the Most Wanted Terrorist Sent to Hell

As a result of joint operation, police and CTD upon information of presence of terrorist in Abdul Khel, a suburb of Lakki Marwat, killed three Khawarij including the most wanted terrorist.

According to the details, on information about the presence of terrorists, teams of Police and CTD surrounded the hideout of the terrorists located at a very difficult mountain range called Sheikh Badin and blocked the escape routes with a coordinated strategy. In the fierce exchange of fire, three terrorists, including the most wanted terrorist leader Zubair, were killed while two terrorists were seriously injured.

The slain terrorists belong to the TTP Tipu Gul group and were involved in extortion, target killing and several terrorist activities against security forces and wanted by the police in several cases. Death of the most wanted terrorist is undoubtedly a proof of the great success and professionalism of the Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Police.

The Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Police, along with other security agencies, is engaged in eradication of Khawarij in Lakki Marwat and its suburbs with utmost zeal and professionalism. Khyber Pakhtunkhwa police especially CTD deserve appreciation for this successful operation. InshaAllah, the series of successes against the Khawarij will continue.
