TTP Suffering From Internal Disintegration Sub Groups Actively Engaged in Appeasing Foreign Masters

In last few months, surge in TTP internal rifts has been witnessed. TTP Mohmand's (Jamaat-ul-Ahrar) rift with terrorist Noor Wali Mehsud is known to all and its notorious leader Sarbakaf Mohmand is busy carving out his own separate identity. Taking advantage of current political situation, terrorist Sarbakaf Mohmand has released another fake statement, while real motives behind these fake tactics are as under:-

- Terrorist Sarbakaf Mohmand is trying his best to present himself as Noor Wali Mehsud's replacement in front of rest of TTP factions.
- Terrorist Sarbakaf Mohmand is trying to convince foreign masters of his loyalty with anti-army rhetoric.
- Taking advantage of recent political tension, he is unsuccessfully trying to incite public against army to reduce growing public hatred against him.
- As usual, being used as a tool of external forces, he is eager to make money by being part of conspiracy to instigate chaos in Pakistan.

Pakistani nation is going through process of political evolution, while "Takfiri" elements are trying unsuccessfully to create division between public and state institutions by taking advantage of this temporary instability. Insha Allah, soon this great nation will be able to determine right direction for itself, in which there was no room for terrorists before and there will be no room afterwards as well.
