North Waziristan; Huge Shock to TTP Gohar Group Three Khawarij, Including Most Wanted Terrorist, were Killed due to Internal Rifts

According to confirmed reports, there was an exchange of fire as a result of internal rifts among terrorists of TTP Gohar group in Dinur area of North Waziristan, as a result of which three Khawarij were killed.

According to details, terrorist Zangli, who hates terrorist commander Gohar, attacked his close aides and killed two terrorists including most wanted terrorist Rehmatullah alias Zawaste and injured one, while in retaliation, injured terrorist opened fire and killed terrorist Zangli.

Notorious terrorist Zawaste was highly wanted in several terror attacks including IEDs attacks on security forces.

Terrorist Zangli and Gohar group had differences over immoral and unnatural activities of terrorist commander Gohar as well as money related issues which forced him to take extreme steps.

Khawarij are trying to target one another because of acquisition of haram wealth, unnatural desires and have led them astray. Insha Allah, end of these Khawarij is near.
