North Waziristan: Exchange of Fire Between Security Forces and Terrorists

An exchange of fire occurred between security forces and TTP terrorists in Khar Warsak area, adjacent to Ghulam Khan last night. Timely response by security forces forced terrorists to flee, while search operation is underway to find them.

Reportedly a large number of terrorists were killed and injured in fierce exchange of fire. Dead bodies of two terrorists have been recovered along with explosive materials and American-made weapons. Three security personnel were martyred, while fighting terrorists with courage and bravery.

According to preliminary reports, both slain terrorists belong to Tibi Thol Khel area, so it is responsibility of local tribes to keep an eye on their area and see if local facilitators are not involved in these activities.
