Lakki Marwat; Highly Successful Operation by Police and CTD, Three Khawarij Sent to Hell

Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Police and CTD arrested three wanted terrorists and arrested two in a very successful operation on the basis of intelligence in Tatrakhel area of Lakki Marwat. Weapons, ammunition and communication equipment were recovered.

CTD and police surrounded terrorists hiding in hideout and gave them an opportunity to surrender however terrorists started firing. By displaying utmost professionalism and coordinated strategy, joint team of police and CTD killed three terrorists and arrested two others in a fierce exchange of fire.

Among slain terrorists is most wanted terrorist Sifat alias Ashna, who was wanted in various extortion cases, target killings and terrorism along with other slain terrorists.

The recent successful operation is a testament to the bravery and professionalism of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Police and CTD. Along with security forces, other law enforcement agencies are also achieving significant successes against Khawarij, for which public pays tribute to them.
