North Waziristan: Major Successes of Security Forces Most Wanted Terrorist Sent to Hell

In a successful Information-based operation in Spalga, a suburb of Miranshah, security forces killed the most wanted terrorist. Arms, explosives and communication equipment recovered

According to the details, security forces upon information of presence of most wanted terrorist Rehmat Shah, surrounded his hideout and warned him to surrender but upon firing from the compound, security forces in return sent the terrorist to hell. However, In exchange of fire a security individual got martyred.

Terrorist Rehmat Shah was wanted for extortion, kidnapping for ransom, bomb attacks on innocent people and several terrorist activities against the security forces, whose death is definitely a great success for the security forces.

Security personnel posted in Miranshah and suburbs are continuously wiping out the terrorists with professionalism and coordinated strategy, while the Khawarij are hiding and going to hell day by day. InshaAllah, the process of elimination of Khawarij will continue.
