Tank; Locals Lined up Against Khawarij Attempt to Kidnap Youth Foiled

Khawarij tried to kidnap a local youth in Bazai, suburb of Tank upon which residents of the area retaliated and arrested the kidnapers.

According to the details, three terrorists who belonged to Tariq Kochi group tried to kidnap a local laborer, upon which locals gathered and after exchange of fire arrested the terrorists.

Later on they were released on humanitarian grounds.

Upon receipt of information about the incident, security forces reached the area. On which the residents of the area reiterated their resolve to stand side by side with the security forces against Khawarij for lasting peace and stability and to deal with the terrorists with iron hands in case of such incidents.

Locals stand against the terrorists not only reflect their deep hatred towards them but also reinforces the fact that these Khawarij can never stand up to the people and security forces. InshaAllah, they are rapidly moving towards their fate.
