Traditional Hypocrisy of Khawarij and Reality of the so-called Sharia Courts

There is a famous saying in Pashto language that "Mama Shamira Dargad Yam" means no one considers me a part of any party but I say that this party is mine. After being humiliated by the brave Pashtun people, same is the case with Khawarij of TTP in Afghanistan. Like habitual criminals, they are trying unsuccessfully to keep the internally disintegrated organization alive just for the sake of looting wealth

TTP is engaged in anti-Islamic hostility in the name of so-called Jihad and is now pretending about the existence of Sharia courts and spreading false propaganda about their decisions to influence people, while the real truth is as follows:

- ▲ Khawarij tried to use the religion card to impose their self-made and outdated system masses at the behest of foreign masters and shed a lot of blood on of Pashtun nation, but the masses rejected them
- ▲ These Kharijites violated the sanctity of the mosques and pulpit and started the business of extortion and kidnapping for ransom in return for firbiden wealth, which the security agencies are thwarting with a systematic strategy.
- ▲ In the past, Kharijites kept kidnapping minor girls through their illegal and forbidden decisions and then forcefully marrying them to their terrorists.
- ▲ In the name of the so-called Shariah system, these Khawarij not only defamed Islam all over the world but also used the religion for financial gains.
- ▲ In the name of Sharia, these Kharijites hurt the Pashtun tribes and their customs at the international level.

The whole world is well aware of TTP's hostility towards Pashtuns and mockery of Sharia law. At present, the rule of law prevails in the entire Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, including the tribal districts, and TTP is not getting a foothold. They are forced to spread false propaganda.

The Afghan Interim Government will have to think whether in the future it can support these anti-Islamic Khawarij and become hostile to Pakistan and its people.
