North Waziristan (Mir Ali): Khawarijs Suicide Attack on FC Camp, 6 Terrorists Sent to Hell in Timely Response

In Khaddi, a suburb of Mir Ali, Khawarij attacked FC camp with the help of a vehicle-borne suicide bomber. FC personnel deployed in the camp responded with bravery in a timely manner and destroyed the evil ambitions of the Khawarijs.

According to details, Khawarij attacked FC camp located in a populated area with a vehicle-borne suicide bomber at Sehri time when FC personnel were preparing for prayers. Five personnel martyred when roof of the building adjacent to the boundry wall of the camp collapsed due to a suicide blast.

Terrorists tried to enter the camp after suicide attack, faced stiff resistance and the FC soldiers under the leadership of Wing Commander Lieutenant Colonel Kashif set a new example of courage and bravery, killing 6 terrorists. However, Lieutenant Colonel Kashif and Captain Ahmed attained the highest rank of Shahadat in close quarter battle with terrorists.

In recent days, security forces have inflicted heavy casualties on the Khawarijs in North Waziristan and especially in Mir Ali, while such suicide attacks are proof of the desperation of the Khawarij. Morale of the security forces cannot be lowered by these cowardly attacks, but the operations against terrorists will be accelerated and the crackdown on the Khawarij will continue to be tightened, and they will be brought to a terrible end, InshaAllah.
