Ceremonies of TTP Khawarij in So-Called Madaris Established in Afghan Province Kunar, Questioned Raised Against Afghan Interim Government's Claims

Ceremonies were organized yesterday in so-called madaris in Afghanistan's Kunar province on behalf of banned TTP's self-proclaimed Ministry of Education and Da'wah, where content related to terrorism and un-Islamic slogans are taught instead of religious education.

It is not possible for TTP to hold such events openly in Afghanistan without support of Afghan Interim Government, of course, their full support is also included in such actions of TTP. This is enough to expose fake claims and hypocrisy of Afghan Taliban.

Like the rest of TTP madaris in Afghanistan, Mohtamim Gul Muhammad Bajuri of TTP madrasa Jami al Uloom in Kunar province is the murderer of hundreds of Pakistanis and has led forced and helpless Afghan children to carry out terrorism activities and preparing them for suicide attacks against Pakistan.

Afghan Interim Government has responsibility to keep its commitments to international community, especially Pakistan and prevent its territory from being used against Pakistan, otherwise Pakistan reserves right to act unilaterally.
