Bannu: TTP Resorts to Traditional Hypocrisy After Burning Girls' School

Recently, TTP Khawarij set fire to girls' school in Mambati Barakzai area of Bannu and fled after wall chalking school, threatening dire consequences if school was reopened.

Khawarij shocked by severe public backlash, today denied crime committed by so-called Wilayat Bannu, they issued a statement of condemnation, which is clearly proves hypocrisy of these Khawarij who are trying unsuccessfully to cover this heinous crime being committed on orders of central leadership of TTP.

Public ask these Khawarij that:-

- ▲ If indeed they are not involved in this crime, why did it take four days for them to issue a statement of condemnation and why did central leadership of TTP not issue a statement?
- ▲ How do scholars of these Khawarij view women's education, which is mentioned in this narration.
- ▲ Have these Khawarij forgotten dark history of attacks on women's education and rights in Swat and other areas.

Pakistani nation sends clear message to these Khawarij that they are well aware of their enmity towards Islam and education. These followers of ignorance were afraid of education even yesterday and are enemies of education and progress even today. Their complete elimination will prove to be guarantee of peace and stability and bright future, Insha Allah.
