North Waziristan; Khawarij's Attempt to Escape to Afghanistan Foiled Two Afghan Terrorists Sent to Hell, Many Injured

Security forces in the border area of Bangdar, North Waziristan identified the movement of terrorists and foiled their attempt to escape to Afghanistan. In successful operation of the security forces, two Khawarij were sent to hell while many others got injured.

According to the details, on February 12, security personnel deputed at the Pak-Afghan border in Bangdar area timely identified the movement of 6 to 7 terrorists and targeted them when they were trying to escape to Afghanistan. As a result, two Kharijites were sent to hell.

According to sources, both dead terrorists are Afghan nationals, whose names were confirmed as Abid Zardan and Hamza Sultan Khel. Slain terrorists were affiliated with TTP and were involved in several terrorist activities in Pakistan.

Security personnel deployed on the border areas adjacent to North Waziristan are closely monitoring the Pak-Afghan border and movement of terrorists has been restricted. InshaAllah, Khawarijs will not be allowed to escape and the process of bringing them to a terrible end will continue.
