TTP Khawarij has No Place to Hide Now

On the one hand, Dar al Ifta, an organization associated with Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan, has declared terror attacks on Pakistan from Afghan soil are illegal and haram, while on the other hand, Kunar and Nuristan authorities have actively supported TTP's infiltration attempt in Chitral.

In these circumstances, Kunar and Nuristan locals including Mufti Abdul Baseer from Dangam Kunar, have raised many questions from Amir ul Momineen and scholars of Emirate Islamia, such as:-

- ▲ Does the one who opposes order of Amirul Momineen become an apostate?
- ▲ Dar al Ifta's authentic fatwa that jihad is forbidden outside Afghanistan, so will those who participate and facilitate it be called apostates?
- ▲ Authorities of Kunar and Nuristan have openly helped TTP, so still their orders be to obeyed? Is this not a violation of the order of Amirul Momineen?
- ▲ Do Mujahideen of Emirate have their own will and do not obey order of Amirul Momineen?

Islamic Emirate defeated US with the help of people, but if same people start opposing, they can lose their rule very quickly. Instead of denying, Afghan Interim Government should come up with solution to TTP problem but do not resort to hypocrisy to show their presence in Pakistan.

On the other hand, hundreds of viral videos in support of Pakistan Army in which locals are carrying injured and ammunition in their vehicles in Chitral, is exposing fake propoganda of TTP. With each passing day, TTP is not only losing its ground but is also weakened ideologically. Insha Allah! Now they will not find any escape route.
