Swat: Major Success of Security Forces in Buner Most Wanted Terrorist Sent to Hell

In a complex operation in Badu Tinga, a suburb of Buner, security forces killed the most wanted terrorist of TTP active in Swat, Buner, Charbagh and Shangla.

According to details, security forces upon information laid an ambush on the possible route of terrorists and targeted them when they were moving in the area taking advantage of the bad weather and dense forests. In the fierce exchange of fire, most wanted terrorist leader Saleem Rabbani died, while three terrorists were seriously injured. However, fighting bravely, two security personnel achieved the status of martyrdom

Terrorist Salim Rabbani was the so-called TTP leader in Swat, who was an expert in target killing, training terrorists, making automatic bombs and had completed planning major terrorist operations in Swat and suburbs. The government had set a head money of five million rupees for him.

Death of Saleem Rabbani after that of Mohsin Qadir is undoubtedly a big blow for TTP and is a proof of the unwavering commitment of security forces against terrorism, Alhamdulillah
