Khyber Pakhtunkhwa: Security Agencies Successful Operations Against Extortionist Continues

In recent operations against extortionists, CTD arrested 3 Afghan extortionists in Peshawar and adjoining areas today; Preliminary investigation is ongoing and more arrests are expected.

Arrested Afghan extortionists are associated with banned TTP, who were involved in several incidents and used to send extortion money to TTP leaders hiding in Afghanistan.

After recent security agencies successful operations, TTP leadership is confused as their haram source of wealth has been exposed and they are foreseeing critical financial problems in future.

Public cooperation is of utmost importance during recent crackdown by government and security forces against extortion while actions have also been initiated against those who has given money to extortionists.
