Nangarhar Afghanistan: Assassination Attempt on Key Commander of outlawed TTP

According to confirmed reports, Rasool Khan Gujar alias Maulvi Zubair, key commander of outlawed TTP was seriously injured in assassination attempt in Nangarhar province of Afghanistan yesterday, Who is fighting for his life in Jalalabad hospital. While according to some reports, he has already died and sent to hell. This attack is indicative of TTP's internal rifts, which has intensified in recent days.

Terrorist commander Rasool Khan was considered as one of the closest associates of Fazlullah, who was involved in target killing of prominent figures in Pakistan, extortion and attacks on security forces.

Terrorist Rasool Gujar was also involved in recent attacks on security forces in Chitral and was planning terror attacks in Dir and Swat.

Successive killings of key of Khawarij on Afghan soil and assassination attempts on each other are not only an undeniable proof of their presence on Afghan soil, but also foreshadowing of fate of these wicked and extortionate Khawarij.
