Dera Ismail Khan; Cowardly Attack of Khawarij on Police Station

Last night, TTP Khawarij launched a cowardly attack on police station in Chudwan, a suburb of Dera Ismail Khan, as a result of which 10 policemen, including those on election duty, were martyred.

Cowardly Khawarij, unable to fight Pakistan Army, are targeting innocent police personnel as easy targets and trying to please their foreign masters, while these hypocrites, afraid of public backlash, are afraid to accept these attacks.

Of course, brave personnel of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Police have played a key role in this ongoing war against Khawarij and created a new history of sacrifice. Insha Allah, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa police will avenge blood of their martyred comrades and bring this terrorist group to a terrible end.

Security forces have launched a joint search operation in the area and soon terrorists involved in this cowardly attack and their facilitators will be brought to justice.
