Khyber; Huge Success of Security Forces Most Wanted Commander of ISIS Sent to Hell

Security forces killed most wanted terrorist commander of Daesh, Surat Gul in intelligence based operation in Jabr Mela, suburb of Tirah (Khyber). Weapons, ammunition, hand grenades and communication equipment recovered.

According to the details, security forces surrounded terrorist commander Surat Gul hideout on information of his presence in Jabr Mela after which he tried to escape, who stayed there for purpose of obtaining ransom money and drugs. However, with well planned strategy and professionalism, security forces killed him during exchange of fire.

Terrorist commander Surat Gul was one of the most wanted terrorists of ISIS, with numerous videos of his brutality, in which he is shown slitting the throats of innocents.

Killing of the most wanted terrorist is a major achievement of the security forces deployed in Khyber, for which locals are paying tribute. In recent operations against Khawarij, offensive strategy and integrated intelligence system have played an important role. InshaAllah, Khawarij eradication will continue.
