Dera Ismail Khan; Security Forces Successful Operation. Four Terrorists Killed

Dera Ismail Khan, security forces killed four Khawarij in search operation in Kulachi, suburb of Dera Ismail Khan.

Terrorists had forcibly taken refuge in local house by taking occupants hostage and were using women and children as human shields.

Security forces safely rescued four people including an elder, women and children under a well organized plan and killed four terrorists in house. However, fighting with great bravery, two security personnel got martyred.

Slain terrorists were involved in several terrorist activities against security forces and locals, used to extort money and force innocent locals for facilitation.

As a result of security forces' operations on timely information about presence of terrorists, thanks to public cooperation and integrated intelligence network, Khawarij are meeting their fate in large numbers every day.
