Tank: Great success of Local Tribes Against the Khawarij Most Wanted Terrorist Leader Sent to Hell

Two Khawarij, including the notorious and most important TTP leader Faridullah alias Parake, were seriously injured in an exchange of fire with local tribesmen in Darikhel, a suburb of Tank, who were taken to a nearby village.

The local people informed the security forces about the transfer of the injured terrorists, on which the security forces ambushed and targeted the injured Khawarij and their associates.

In the exchange of fire with the security forces, the cowardly terrorists escaped leaving a vehicle along with the injured terrorist Amjad. Reliable sources have confirmed the death of the most wanted terrorist leader Faridullah alias Parake. While the cowardly leadership of Khawarij, as always, is reluctant to recognize their dead terrorists.

The terrorist Parake was a resident of Darikhel and the leader of the TTP Parake group. who was involved in targeting innocent people, extortion from contractors and several terrorist attacks on police and security forces. Residents of the area are expressing gratitude for the death of this Khawarij.

Local people taking up arms against terrorists and targeting them is an expression of extreme hatred towards them. On the other hand, the security forces are in constant pursuit of these Khawarij with the support of the people and the process of making them go to hell is continued.
